

Capital District Agility Fun Group

SEASON 14- Winter 2018- 2019

The Capital District Agility Fun Group (CDAFG) is a group of dog agility enthusiasts from several agility and/or dog clubs and training organizations in the greater New York Capital District who have agreed to train together at the locations and times specified below. CDAFG exists to provide agility trial training within a competitive setting, taking advantage of different facilities, flooring, and other variations as may be experienced at each of the different host locations. CDAFG offers participants the opportunity to prepare for competition with agility courses designed to test handling skills and strategy skills.

Each CDAFG match will consist of handlers and dogs attempting two different courses – a standard course and a games course. Each session will begin with the first dog on the line no later than 9:00 AM and all runs should be completed by approximately noon (except for as noted otherwise, see schedule below). See Rules and Guidelines for complete information.

To be eligible, participants (dogs and handlers) must have completed a Novice Competition class or equivalent, or must have participated in at least one agility trial in the past year. Dogs must be healthy, trained, and at least 12 months old. Bitches in season or any dogs who are blind, lame, or aggressive towards people or other animals are not eligible to participate. The safety of the dogs is our primary concern. By entering this agility group, handlers and owners acknowledge that they are familiar with the rules and guidelines of the CDAFG, and that their dogs are familiar with and able to perform all obstacles safely.

Per the Rules and Guidelines of the CDAFG, participants may include those who do not belong to any of the affiliated organizations but who are invited to participate in the CDAFG by such a member.
